SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

October 4th will mark the end of 17 years of devoted time and effort given by Jesse Natale of the Agawam Sportsmen Club. Jess is retiring as club manager and the members of the organization are expressing their thanks for a job "well done" by holding a going away banquet. Chairman of the affair is Chick Basile. The tickets for the stag meal are going fast, but you can pick them up at the club house if you do not tarry too long. Jim Devine is taking over the duties of club manager and already is appreciating the way Jess handled the many problems that cropped up during the 17 years.

PROMENADERS

SQUARE DANCE

By Beryl and Doug Shaylor

A hearty welcome to Don Blair on the 23d! The Agawam Promenaders will be dancing to their second guest caller in as many weeks this Friday evening at 8 at Robinson Park School, Agawam.

Caller Don Blair has quite a formidable background in square dancing, having been instrumental in establishing, teaching and calling for no less than 10 clubs in three states. He has the additional distinction of being a charter member of the New England Council of Callers Association. Now—shouldn't he know his square-dance "onions?"

The co-operative dance held on Friday, the 16th, at Robinson Park School, sponsored by both the Agawam Promenaders and the Stumbler Squares was a huge success. Our people found some old acquaintances among the Stumbler members, and what is even better, made some new ones. We were so pleased to see many of the area clubs' members enjoying the fun and Dick Davies' fine music. Dick proved to be very patient with all who were "rusty hinges" from a long hot summer.

Remember (not the Alamo) the Don Blair dance, tomorrow night, the 23d of Sep. at the Robinson Park School.

SEE YOU THERE, SQUARE!
